

The International Magazine for Luxury Fabrics, Yarns and Fibres

Twist

The New Wool Record Established 1909

Issue 11
July 2009

Future bright

New luxury
from Heritage
Cashmere

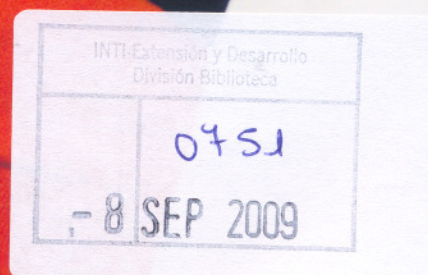

Fabio Foschi interview

The story behind
German Tweed

London Shrunk -
an English classic

Brazil consumer watch

www.twist-international.com

Contents

July 2009

Regulars

- 7 Comment
The view from the editor
- 8 News
Global update from fibre to fashion
- 40 Industry Insight
News from across the production line
- 42 The Markets
Global raw material prices
- 45 The List
Technical terms explained
- 48 My Day
Jackie Gant, marketing manager at Mohair South Africa.
- 49 Events
Shows, exhibitions and conferences across the world

Special features

Knitwear

- 26 Riding high
Janet Prescott looks at the continuing renaissance of luxury knitwear.

Accessories

- 28 Extra time
High-end accessories are becoming increasingly influential, as Janet Prescott explains.
- 30 On a roll
Some intriguing new launches indicate that knitwear and accessories remain at the heart of the product ranges at Johnstons of Elgin. Jonathan Dyson reports.
- 32 New Heritage
Jonathan Dyson looks at the story behind the success of Heritage Cashmere, a young company which supplies luxury knitwear and accessories to some of the biggest names in fashion. And on pages 34-37, Twist presents some of the highlights of Heritage's autumn/winter 2010/11 collection.

Features

- 14 The Knowledge
Paul Johnson explains the concept behind London Shrunk, a classic, uniquely English finish that has been resurrected for the 21st century.
- 16 Global Consumer Watch
Brazil is growing rapidly as a market for luxury goods, as Jozef De Coster reports.
- 18 A new era
Teresa Potenza looks at how the Italian fashion company Gimo's is focusing on eco-friendly production and an expanding retail network.
- 20 Home-grown
German Tweed, produced entirely in Germany, even uses wool from German sheep. Regine Hövelmann reports.
- 22 The Twist Interview
Fabio Foschi speaks to Debora Ferrero about the continuing success of Piacenza during his first two years as CEO and general manager, the company's deep heritage, and his plans for the development of both the fabric and garment elements of the business.
- 38 Quiet progress
At the 78th IWTO Annual Congress, positive moves were made despite 2009 being one of the most difficult years the global wool textile industry has faced. Jonathan Dyson reports from Frankfurt.

