

The International Magazine for Luxury Fabrics, Yarns and Fibres

Twist

Textiles

088

Issue 17
January 2010

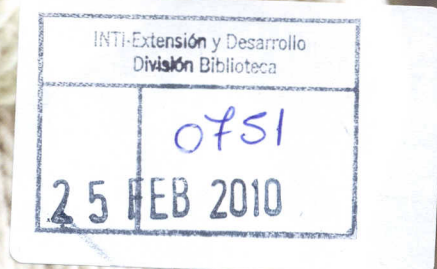

Natural luxury

The unique appeal of Merino

Paolo Zegna interview

Italy consumer watch

Eco luxury focus

Contents

January 2010

Regulars

11 Comment

The view from the editor

12 News

Global update from fibre to fashion

46 The Markets

Global raw material prices

49 The List

Technical terms explained

52 My Day

Upendra Mehra, managing director and owner of UK clothing labels Beaver of Bolton and LibertyFreedom.

53 Events

Shows, exhibitions and conferences across the world

News analysis

18 Rising sun

Debora Ferrero reports on a series of events promoting the benefits of Biellese textiles in Tokyo.

Special features

Spring/summer 2011 fabric trends

20 Dormeuil

Underwear/legwear

26 Gently does it

The newly-created Ramblers Way offers premium superfine worsted wool undergarments, as John W McCurry explains.

28 Placing tights in the spotlight

Lycra is building on its position in designer fashion. Janet Prescott reports.

Eco luxury

34 The real deal

Janet Prescott on why eco luxury textiles are increasingly important to high-end European mills.

36 Sustainable future

Debora Ferrero reports on the Italian spinner Italfil's eco focus.

38 Brave new world

Alexanders of Scotland plans to become the most environmentally friendly mill in Europe. Janet Prescott reports.

40 Enhancing wool production

South African wool broker BKB is encouraging the next generation in rural black wool production to get involved in the industry, reports Bruce Paterson.

41 Going green

BKB is intensifying its green campaign.

42 Natural solution

The first Fair Trade Eco Brand mohair clip has been awarded in South Africa. Bruce Paterson reports.

Features

22 The Knowledge

Chick Olsson explains why Merino wool's natural properties are making it increasingly attractive.

24 Global Consumer Watch

Teresa Potenza finds signs of optimism in Italian luxury fashion and textiles.

30 The Twist Interview

Ermenegildo Zegna president Paolo Zegna tells Jonathan Dyson how the company is combating the challenges created by the economic downturn.

44 Going for gold

A new carpet range is designed to enable all UK sheep farmers to have a stake in the Olympic Games. Jonathan Dyson reports.

