

The International Magazine for Luxury Fabrics, Yarns and Fibres

Twist

Issue 19
March 2010

Eastern elegance

Super luxury couture
from Rocky S

Interiors focus

Yarn trends for spring/summer 2011

Menswear trends for autumn/winter 2010/11

Canada consumer watch

www.twist-international.com

Contents

March 2010

Regulars

- 5 Comment
The view from the editor
- 6 News
Global update from fibre to fashion
- 39 Obituary
Graham Johnson
- 40 The Markets
Global raw material prices
- 45 The List
Technical terms explained
- 48 My Day
Lorna Macaulay, chief executive of the Harris Tweed Authority.
- 49 Events
Shows, exhibitions and conferences across the world

News analysis

- 12 Royal intervention
Jonathan Dyson reports from the launch of the Wool Project, a promotional campaign to raise awareness of the advantages of wool products, championed by HRH the Prince of Wales.
- 14 The value of provenance
The Wool Company consortium in Biella aims to stimulate demand for wools grown in the local area. Debora Ferrero reports.

Show reports

- 20 Fresh and functional
Janet Prescott reports from Pitti Immagine Filati, where mills captured the imagination of key buyers by demonstrating research and technical investment.
- 24 Back to the future
Confident collections, a revamped layout and increased visitor figures helped create an upbeat mood at Pitti Immagine Uomo. Janet Prescott reports.

Special features

Yarn trends for spring/summer 2011

- 22 Light and airy
Zegna Baruffa is stretching the boundaries of super luxury yarn for knitwear through its superfine wool range.

Interiors

- 34 Smart touch
Jonathan Dyson examines Wools of New Zealand's interactive service designed to inform customers and retailers about the value of its wool carpets.
- 36 Healthy home
Tara Hounslea discovers how Australian Wool Innovation is promoting the benefits of wool for the interiors market.
- 37 Woolly warmer
Second Nature has developed rigid insulation for homes using redundant wool carpet. Tara Hounslea reports.

Features

- 16 The Knowledge
Tom Hainsworth explains how Hainsworth Broadcloth combines aesthetic appeal with high performance for the interior textiles market.
- 18 Global Consumer Watch
Keith Nuthall discovers why an increasing interest in fashion means Canada offers a diverse niche market for high-end fabrics in its urban centres.
- 26 Swimming downstream
Regine Hövelmann tells the remarkable story of a special high-quality leather made from salmon skin.
- 28 Pride of Yorkshire
A new fabric collection that celebrates the outstanding textile heritage of Yorkshire is attracting growing interest. Tara Hounslea reports.
- 30 The Twist Interview
Rocky S talks to Elizia Volkmann about the growing success of his eponymous label, which fuses Eastern and Western influences and uses an array of luxury fabrics.

