

The International Magazine for Luxury Fabrics, Yarns and Fibres

Twist

Issue 22
June 2010

Textiles
088

Designed for life

Brisbane Moss on the growing appeal of moleskin and corduroy

Rare and speciality fibres

Doug Shriver interview

Childrenswear

Turkey consumer watch

Contents

June 2010

Regulars

- 5 Comment
The view from the editor
- 6 News
Global update from fibre to fashion
- 12 News analysis
The growing influence of the International Wool Textile Organisation's lobbying project was a key theme at the 2010 IWTO Annual Congress. Jonathan Dyson reports from Paris.
- 42 The Markets
Global raw material prices
- 45 The List
Technical terms explained
- 48 My Day
Roger Hainsworth, wool buyer at Hainsworth, UK
- 49 Events
Shows, exhibitions and conferences across the world

Special features

Childrenswear

- 20 Mini me
Janet Prescott charts the rise of designer childrenswear, and finds that eco aspects are frequently to the fore.

Rare and speciality fibres

- 27 Stylish souvenirs
Tara Hounslea takes a look at Mohair South Africa's new promotional campaign, reminding World Cup football fans to purchase a mohair product.
- 28 Giving something back
David Lee gives a personal account of his recent trips to Afghanistan, where efforts are being made to increase awareness of the high value of cashmere fibre.

- 35 New levels
Prices of luxury fibres remain difficult to forecast, explains Italian luxury fibre trader Marco Lavagnini.
- 36 Nature's finest
British designer Wendy Keith is focused on traceability with a new range of knitwear championing organic wool from a royal flock. Tara Hounslea reports.
- 38 Added value
Tara Hounslea tells the story of the Peruvian alpaca specialist Prosur, which has revitalised its line-up with an expanding product range and a focus on new markets.
- 40 Finding a solution
Francis Rainsford examines how Inca Tops is addressing the devastating effects of climate change on water supplies in Peru.

Features

- 14 The Knowledge
Robert Smithies explains why corduroy and moleskin continue to appeal to designer brands.
- 16 Global Consumer Watch
Turkey's domestic market has developed a taste for luxury clothing and is fast becoming a new focus of attention for up-market brands and retailers, reports John Pagni.
- 18 Jet set
Botto Fila's spring/summer 2011 collection is perfect for rising temperatures and hassle-free travel, with crease-resistant fabrics, washed-out looks and simple patterns.
- 22 The Twist Interview
Brooks Brothers senior fabric specialist Doug Shriver speaks to Jonathan Dyson about the extraordinary SaxXon wool range and why knowledge of textiles is so vital to the US retailer's continuing success.

20

38

