

The International Magazine for Luxury Fabrics, Yarns and Fibres

Twist

Textiles

088

Issue 25
October 2010

Natural beauty

Why wool is back

Super luxury focus

Munich Fabric Start report

Rare and speciality fibres

China consumer watch

www.twist-international.com

Published by

Contents

October 2010

Regulars

- 5 Comment
The view from the editor
- 6 News
Global update from fibre to fashion
- 39 Obituary
Malcolm Herbert Claasen
- 40 The Markets
Global raw material prices
- 43 The List
Technical terms explained
- 48 My Day
Damdin, a Mongolian herdsman
- 49 Events
Shows, exhibitions and conferences across the world

News analysis

- 12 Natural home
A special day on Savile Row will mark the start of the UK's Wool Week. Jonathan Dyson reports.
- 14 Centenary mark
The Harris Tweed industry has lots to celebrate as the famous Orb trademark reaches its 100th year. Bill Lucas reports.

Show report

- 20 A forum for fashion
Munich Fabric Start showcased the latest trends from international fabric companies and denim specialists.

Special features

Super luxury

- 22 Crème de la crème
Janet Prescott examines the latest trends in the market where money is no object.
- 25 Freedom of expression
Scabal's new suiting collection combines Super 200's Merino with the highly-prized vicuña and chinchilla fibres.

- 26 Irresistibly irregular
Janet Prescott discovers how Solbiati combines increased functionality with an elegant, relaxed sense of style.
- 28 Timeless classics
The new 1767 collection from Joshua Ellis is designed to provide an experience of pure pleasure for the wearer.

Rare and speciality fibres

- 34 A helping hand
Francis Rainsford describes how a new initiative from the United Nations is providing support for the camelid-producing countries of Peru, Bolivia and Argentina.
- 36 Sustainable skins
A UK company is becoming increasingly well-known for its environmentally-friendly developments with leather, reports Janet Prescott.

Features

- 16 The Knowledge
Michael R Tyndall explains why new performance characteristics and research into new applications is helping cotton's popularity to grow and grow.
- 18 Global Consumer Watch
China's domestic market has a growing appetite for expensive fabrics made from the world's finest natural fibres, driving imports to record levels.
- 30 The Twist Interview
Annalisa Dunn and Dorothee Hagemann talk to Elizia Volkmann about why they'd love Cooperative Designs to become the UK's most recognised knitwear brand.

