

The International Magazine for Luxury Fabrics, Yarns and Fibres

Twist

Issue 27
December 2010

Original source

The unique appeal
of European linen

Autumn/winter 2011/12
fabric trends

The story behind Nikke, the Japan Wool Textile Co

Spring/summer 2012
yarn trends

Why China's consumers
love US cotton

Contents

December 2010

Regulars

- 7 Comment
The view from the editor
- 8 News
Global update from fibre to fashion
- 42 The Markets
Global raw material prices
- 45 The List
Technical terms explained
- 48 My Day
Nick Nicholson, executive manager, New Zealand Council of Wool Exporters
- 49 Events
Shows, exhibitions and conferences across the world

News analysis

- 16 Royal journey
During a recent visit to Bradford, the Prince of Wales met a diverse range of companies from the region's textile industry and provided a further boost to the Campaign for Wool. Jonathan Dyson reports.

Show Reports

- 22 Technical prowess
Janet Prescott discovered a fresh colour palette for the new summer season at Filo, enhanced by sparkle and metallic effects.
- 26 Bigger than ever
Intertextile Shanghai Apparel Fabrics returned with an array of new products and services to deliver a comprehensive buying experience for visitors from around the world, as well as a new focus on trend direction. Tara Hounslea reports from Shanghai.

Special features

Autumn/winter 2011/12 fabric trends

- 36 Please touch
Janet Prescott examines the latest womenswear collections, where luxurious fibre blends and added surface interest are on offer, and tactile effects take centre stage.

- 39 Fabric collections for autumn/winter 2011/12
Featuring Taylor & Lodge, Lanificio Di Tollegno and Harris Tweed Hebrides.

Features

- 18 The Knowledge
Pier Luigi Loro Piana describes Loro Piana's yearly quest to Mongolia for the finest baby cashmere to transform into sophisticated knitwear and accessories.
- 20 Global Consumer Watch
The Chinese domestic market looks promising for US cotton, reports Jonathan Dyson.
- 24 Pioneering progress
Nikke has launched its latest wool creation to the European market, offering superior quality combined with full traceability along the production chain. Our new Japan correspondent Michiharu Nagamatsu reports.
- 32 The Twist Interview
James Dracup, the group managing director at Johnstons of Elgin, talks to Tara Hounslea about the growing demand for knitwear and accessories, and why a commitment to Made in Scotland is central to the company's success.

