

The International Magazine for Luxury Fabrics, Yarns and Fibres

Twist

Issue 31
May 2011

Natural quality

Supima collection expands
at Brooks Brothers

Knitwear focus

Yarn trends for autumn/winter 2012/13

New directions for linen

Intertextile Beijing
Apparel Fabrics report

Contents

May 2011

Regulars

- 5 Comment
The view from the editor
- 6 News
Global update from fibre to fashion
- 42 The Markets
Global raw material prices
- 45 The List
Technical terms explained
- 48 My Day
Paolo Sala, director of TCA
- 49 Events
Shows, exhibitions and conferences across the world

News analysis

- 12 Complete collection
Jonathan Dyson examines the expansion of Brooks Brothers' Supima Cotton Collection, which highlights the luxury cotton fibre's diverse and unique qualities.

Show reports

- 16 Filo
Blends featuring contrasting fibres with complementary benefits has emerged as a key trend for autumn/winter 2012/13 yarns. Janet Prescott reports from Milan.
- 34 Intertextile Beijing Apparel Fabrics
A wider range of products and several new features were introduced at this year's Intertextile Beijing Apparel Fabrics. Charlotte Rogers reports from Beijing.

Linen focus

- 14 New directions
A growing focus on eco finishes, new innovations in knits, and a spectacular artistic creation from a Mongolian designer are all recent examples of new areas for linen, as Jonathan Dyson explains.

Knitwear special report

- 24 Future knits
The recent yarn and fashion shows revealed a number of significant innovations in knitwear, including technical advances, new tactile effects, and a more diverse use of fibres. Janet Prescott reports.
- 28 Pro active
Our South Africa correspondent Bruce Paterson explains why South African Merino specialist BKB has extended its activities downstream with the launch of a new collection of knitted active wear.

Accessories focus

- 40 Stylish decoration
Exhibitors at Intertextile Beijing Apparel Fabrics showcased a vast array of trims, ribbons, buttons and tags in the dedicated accessories hall. Charlotte Rogers reports.

Features

- 20 The knowledge
Helen Cathles, president of the Australian Superfine Wool Growers' Association, explains why superfine Merino wool is both luxurious and versatile, and how a sustainable future for the fibre is being established.
- 22 Global Consumer Watch
The desire for luxury goods among Russian tourists is proving increasingly significant for several top fashion brands. Martina Mareckova looks at the key cities and international labels benefiting from this phenomenon, and explains why luxury fabrics made from natural fibres are particularly sought-after.
- 30 The Twist Interview
Antonio Laspina, director of the Italian Trade Commission in Beijing, speaks to Charlotte Rogers about the key factors behind the success of Italian fabric companies in the Chinese market, the importance of innovation, and the growing awareness of the heritage and quality of Italian fabrics among Chinese consumers.

34

36

