

The International Magazine for Luxury Fabrics, Yarns and Fibres

Twist

Issue 35
October 2011

Cool touch

John Foster shows
way ahead with new innovations and markets

Mohair focus

New era for shirtings

World Textile Summit report

Contents

October 2011

Regulars

9 Comment

The view from the editor

10 News

Global update

50 The Markets

Global raw material prices

52 The List

Technical terms explained

57 Events

Shows, exhibitions and conferences across the world

News analysis

20 Working together

Jonathan Dyson reports from Barcelona on the key themes to emerge from the first ITMA-ITMF World Textile Summit.

26 Getting the message

The Campaign for Wool has lifted to another level in its second year, with a groundbreaking exhibition in London, several other new promotional activities in the UK, and an international Wool Week held across several key global markets.

30 Changing shape

The industrial clusters that make up Italy's textile and clothing production are adapting through expanding across the supply chain, and focusing on higher levels of innovation and quality. Debora Ferrero reports.

Special features

Shirtings

32 High value

Janet Prescott outlines the key recent shirting developments, and looks at the key shirting trends for spring/summer 2012 and autumn/winter 2012/13.

Mohair focus

42 New openings

English mill John Foster is in the limelight thanks to several recent high-profile projects, and is developing strongly through utilising an increasingly diverse variety of finishes, and expanding its range of global markets. Jonathan Dyson reports.

44 Back to the future

A project aimed at helping reverse the recent dramatic decline in South African mohair production is growing in scope, and is helping provide the mohair industry with a more sustainable future.

Features

38 Global Consumer Watch

With a passionate commitment to eco-friendly and ethical production, a heritage built on the country's unique craft industry, and a new generation of imaginative designers, Sri Lanka is rapidly becoming a major source of clothing production. Bruce Montgomery, a regular visitor to the country, explains why.

40 The Knowledge

Judy Hyde, executive director of the Mohair Council of America and Christoval Carpet, details the unique advantages of US mohair, outlines its diverse range of applications, and explains why a growing array of floor covering products are using US mohair.

46 The Twist Interview

Raymond Libeert, CEO of the Belgian high-end linen fabric specialist Libeco and president of Masters of Linen speaks to Janet Prescott about the challenges and opportunities for the European linen industry, the keys to Libeco's success, and why the interior sector is increasingly important to its growth.

32

26

