

The International Magazine for Luxury Fabrics, Yarns and Fibres

Twist

Issue 47
December 2012

Hat Trick

Jo Gordon's quirky
knitted style

Always on trend: Nelly Rodi

North African knitwear and the Arab Spring

The cultural expression of Yoruba Textiles

Spring/summer 2014
yarn trends from Filo

www.twist-international.com

Published by

 WTIN
WORLD TEXTILE INFORMATION NETWORK

Contents

December 2012

Regulars

- 5 Comment
The view from the editor
- 6 News
Global update
- 42 The Markets
Global raw material prices
- 45 Events
Shows, exhibitions and conferences across the world

Events

- 12 UK Wool Week
- 18 Intertextile Shanghai

Yarn Trends

- 16 All in the blend
The high quality offering at Filo showcased new fine fibre blends, technical features and organic attributes. Janet Prescott reports from Milan.

Fibres

- 27 Colour vision
Dieter Eichinger, vice president of the Lenzing textile business unit, discusses the latest innovation in colour.

Mohair

- 30 Quality never compromised
The Ermenegildo Zegna trophy recognises the best super quality kid mohair produced in South Africa, affirming the group's commitment to protect and maintain high standards for its exclusive clientele. Bruce Paterson reports.

Woven fabrics

- 31 Modern heritage
The experienced design team at Hield Brothers is working hard to build on the reputation of British made fabrics, drawing on an extensive archive and the influences of contemporary culture.

Knitwear

- 32 The Arab Spring
Persistent economic difficulties in Europe stemming exports of knitwear from North Africa and political uprisings have had a negative effect on foreign direct investment in the area. However, some countries have weathered the storm better than others. Pacifica Goddard reports.
- 34 Stellar success
In conversation with knitwear guru Sophie Steller on her career in design and the latest trends in texture and blend.
- 36 Coming home
The increasing demand for British made products has led one sock manufacturer to bring operations back to the UK. Technical healthcare products are the latest venture proving to have big potential. David Stevenson finds out more.

Accessories

- 38 Leave your hat on
The promise of an arctic blast may seem like a welcome prospect given the opportunity to wear soft, knitted accessories with quirky charm, courtesy of Scottish textile designer Jo Gordon.
- 40 Objects of desire: Printed woollen interior textiles by Jane Walker

Features

- 20 The Knowledge
The Yoruba textile artists of South Western Nigeria are prized for their creativity and innovation, expressing their society's values and desires through the intricately woven fabric. Dr William Rea discusses the integral part cloth has to play in the complex Yoruba identity.
- 25 The Twist Interview
Janet Prescott speaks to Nelly Rodi, the leading lady of trend analysis about the 1960s, consumer power and the value of creativity.
- 28 Global Consumer Watch
Following an emerging trend for luxury childrenswear, many design houses are hoping to cash in on this additional income stream. Naturally, no expense is spared on fine fabrics and chic design details.

