American immigration

Barack Obama has got it right: leader, page 10. The president's plan, page 21. Britain's government is pandering to anti-immigration feeling. It will be outflanked by it: Bagehot, page 48

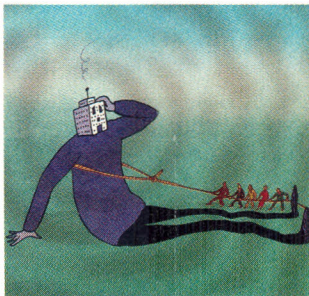

Egypt Muhammad Morsi must work with the opposition; if he doesn't his country will fall apart: leader, page 10. Two years after its revolution, Egypt is again in crisis, pages 17-19

China and North Korea A rift opens up between the two, page 34. China has problems with Myanmar, too, page 30 and with Didier Drogba, page 35

Law firms A cheaper legal education and more liberal rules would benefit America's lawyers—and their clients: leader, page 12. A lawsuit could lead to more competition and more choice, page 51. Could law schools change their ways? Page 52

AIG The insurance firm has done a good job of rehabilitating itself. Now can it stand on its own two feet? Page 59
