A SPECIAL REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL BANKING

On the cover

American investment banks dominate global finance once more. That's not necessarily good for the United States: leader, page 11. Investment banking faces a leaner, humbler future, though a select few banks will emerge from the financial crisis even larger and more powerful. Read our special report after page 52. British taxpayers are unlikely to profit from bailed-out banks, page 61. The biggest financial exchange you have never heard of, page 77
