Exhibitors and trade visitors are expecting InterMeat 2008 to offer even more business opportunities and solutions than the previous fair held two years ago.

13 Regional focus

Danish Crown's state-of-the-art pig slaughter plant in Horsens has a capacity of processing 80,000 pigs a week. This happens according to the latest welfare, hygiene and efficiency standards by request of the producers themselves.

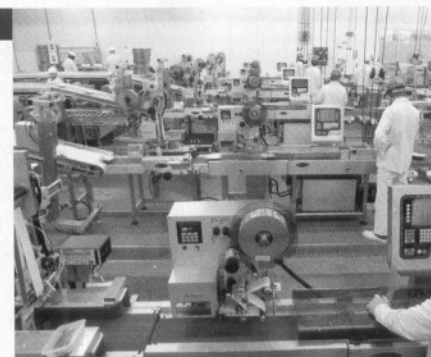

16 Packaging

Packaging can play a leading role in strategies of market penetration, as shown by the recent entry of a local French meat processor into the niche market of large retail.

27 Weighing and batching

Dungannon's Green Pastures brand products are in consistently high demand from many of the UK's biggest and best retailers. The company's products come in all shapes and sizes of packs, so it takes quite an armoury of technology to handle such a varied output of weights and formats.
