

em

THE MAGAZINE FOR ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGERS

Also in this issue:

Green Technology and Patent Protection

EPA Researchers Connect Air Quality and Human Health

The Great Global Warming Distraction, Take 2

Innovations in Remediation

Site Cleanup from Brown to Green

FEATURES

Innovations in Remediation

Remediation standards vary not only among countries, but also among states and provinces within a country. Meeting these widely varying standards has resulted in the development and use of innovative systems to effectively and efficiently achieve established cleanup goals. This month's EM features five articles, representing a wide range of remediation topics addressed by environmental professionals and the innovations employed to meet them.

Page 4

The European Environmental Liability Directive and Comparisons with U.S. Natural Resource Damage Assessment Regulations

by Samantha Deacon, Nicola Eury, Joe Nicolette, and Mark Travers, ENVIRON

Page 6

Controlled Vadose Saturation and Remediation (CVSR): Bringing Successful Saturated Zone Treatments to the Vadose Zone

by Stephen Koenigsberg, Barbara Coughlin, and Keith Cole, ENVIRON; and Gary Cronk, JAG Consulting Group

Page 12

Case Study: Groundwater Remediation of a Contaminated Site using Enhanced Anaerobic Bioremediation

by Shawn Turner, David Anderson, Brendan Brown, and Michael Edgar, CDM

Page 17

Vapor Intrusion Project Coordination: A Case Study from the Midwest

by David Zbieszowski and Geoffrey Glanders, August Mack Environmental

Page 22

By-products of the Thermal Treatment of Hazardous Waste—Formation and Health Effects

by Maud Walsh, Stephania Cormier, Kurt Varner, and Barry Dellinger, Louisiana State University

Page 26

Green Technology and Patent Protection

by Robert Lambrechts, Lathrop & Gage LLP

A primer for environmental professionals on the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office's new Green Technology Pilot Program.

Page 31

COLUMNS

Competitive Strategy:

The Great Global Warming Distraction, Take 2 35

by Richard MacLean

PM File: No Time Like the Present, No Value

Like the Present 38

by Dave Elam

ASSOCIATION NEWS

Message from the President 2

Focus on Climate Change—

Ongoing for Decades in

A&WMA

by A. Gwen Eklund

2009 Annual Conference

Preview 42

Get the Information You

Need at ACE 2010

The Member Minute . . . 52

Kay Bedenis

DEPARTMENTS

EPA Research Highlights . . 40

News Focus 44

Canadian Report 47

Advertisers' Index 47

Professional

Development Programs . . . 48

JA&WMA Table of

Contents 48

Calendar of Events 50

Printed on Recycled Paper